ORDER:

WHEREAS, the Collector and District Magistrate, Kurnool District, Kurnool has made an order of detention, vide reference first read above under Section 3 (1) & (2) r/w Section 2 (g) of the Andhra Pradesh Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Dacoits, Drug Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders and Land Grabbers Act, 1986 (Act No.1 of 1986), against Sri Nasari Venkateswarlu @ Seesa Venkateswarlu, S/o Late Nadipi Venkatanna, aged 58 years, Ahobilam village, Allagadda Mandal, Kurnool District, for having voluminous criminal record and he is a dangerous and notorious criminal having involved in all types of offences viz., bodily and other heinous offences and he is constantly indulging in goonda activities in Allagadda and Ahobilam areas of Kurnool District and committing offences and became dangerous to the lonely public in purview of A.P. Prohibition Act, 1995. He along with his henchmen were used to threaten the witnesses not to depose their evidence against them. He used to threaten and restrict the aspirants participating in the auctions of shops etc., of Sri Lakshmi Narasimha Swamy temple and used to capture the bids. He was in the habit of grabbing the endowment lands under the threat, establishing shops and giving out to his followers and collecting rents from them. He involved in different bodily offences and also harmful to the common public and actively participating in trapping the common youth and turning them as criminals since long time. Thus he along with some others are maintaining organized gang and operating in the commission of offences arming with deadly weapons like knives, sticks, and causing obstructions not only police department but also common people and also causing breach of public peace and tranquillity in Ahobilam and surrounding areas. The Collector and District Magistrate, Kurnool having satisfied that there is a valid and prima facie case against the individual has passed the impugned order of detention and sought for its approval. Because of his repeated anti-social activities, public order is very often disturbed and adversely affected and the said activities of the accused falls within the definition of section (2) (g) of Section of Act 1 of 1986 i.e. “Goonda” and responsible for continuous disturbance in the area and acting in the manner prejudicial to the maintenance of public order.

2. AND WHEREAS, the Government have accorded approval of the said detention order under sub-section (3) of Section 3 of the Act, vide Government Orders second read above;

3. AND WHEREAS, under Section 10 of the Act, Government within three weeks from the date of detention of a person under the order shall place the case before the Advisory Board on Preventive Detentions, constituted under Section 9 of the said Act, comprising of Justice Sri T.L.N. Reddy (Retired), Chairman and two other Members and the Advisory Board shall submit its report to Govt., within seven weeks from the date of detention under Section 11(1) of the said Act. The above said case was placed before the Advisory Board for its consideration and to submit its report to Government, under Section 11 (1) of the said Act, vide reference 3rd read above. The case was reviewed by the Advisory Board on 20.12.2018. After having heard the detenue besides his wife, Smt N.Veeramma; Son Sri N.Venkata Ramana; and Daughter Smt P.Lakshmi Devi and perused the representation dated:20.12.2018 of the wife of the detenue, and the Investigating Officers, and also upon perusing the grounds of detention and the connected records, the Advisory Board has unanimously reported that in its opinion, “there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenue, “Sri Nasari Venkateswarlu @ Seesa Venkateswarlu, S/o Late Nadipi Venkatanna, aged 58 years, Ahobilam village, Allagadda Mandal, Kurnool District”;

4. AND WHEREAS, the Government, after careful examination of the entire record and the opinion of the Advisory Board, has observed that the detenue, Sri Nasari Venkateswarlu @ Seesa Venkateswarlu, S/o Late Nadipi Venkatanna, aged 58 years, Ahobilam village, Allagadda Mandal, Kurnool District, is found to be involved in as many as in nineteen (19) cases mentioned in the grounds of detention, he has not changed his attitude. All the instances mentioned above clearly establish that he is a habitual offender and his activities are habitual in nature and prejudicial to the maintenance of public order, which are registered under various provisions of Section 110 e & g, 107 of Cr.P.C, 7 (a)&(b) of APP Act, 147,148, 323, 324, 354, 506, 509 r/w 149 IPC, as well as Chapter XVI or XVII or XXII of IPC, as such the activities of the individual falls under and within the meaning of ‘Goonda’ as defined under sec. 2(g) of Act 1 of 1986. The Advisory Board after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenue. As such, the detenue deserves the maximum period of detention, as provided under Section 13 of the Act;

5. Now, therefore, after due consideration of the report of the Advisory Board and the material available on record, Government, in exercise of the powers conferred under sub-section (1) of Section 12 read with Section 13 of the said Act, hereby confirm the Order of Detention made by the Collector and District Magistrate, Kurnool District, Kurnool in the reference 1st read above, as approved in the G.O. 2nd read above and direct that the detention of Sri Nasari Venkateswarlu @ Seesa Venkateswarlu, S/o Late Nadipi Venkatanna, aged 58 years, Ahobilam village, Allagadda Mandal, Kurnool District, be continued for a period of 12 (Twelve) months from the date of his detention, i.e. 30.11.2018.
